Anti slavery campaign

Next week we shall be inviting children to purchase a wrist band in aid of A21 a charity supporting victims of human trafficking.

The black "NOT FOR SALE" bands are £1.

The campaign high lights the plight of many children across the world who are sold into work by human traffickers.

The bands will be on sale from Monday.

Summer painting event

This year we will be taking part in the Junior Painter of the Year competition. The theme for the competition will be 'Visions of the Future'. We will be asking the children now and over the summer holidays to paint a picture which will be entered into the competition. All paintings must be no bigger than A3 paper in size. Any type of paint can be used and all entries must have on the back of their painting a name or caption, the name and age of the child who is entering the competition and the name of the school and school's postcode (IG2 7LB).

Below are some ideas to help the children with their paintings:-

What the world would be like in the future? – They could paint their family, home, who they live with. Perhaps you live with some aliens from another planet?

The world around us –What the world is like around us i.e. food, clothes, people, schools, how we travel (in cars or even in space)?

Inventions – perhaps the children can think up and paint whacky inventions or robots that will be of help to people in the future?

Our beautiful planet – think about what the future holds for our oceans, forests, land and landscapes, towns etc and perhaps what the future view of the planet will look like from space. All entries are to be returned to Ms Dworniak, by 1.30pm, on Thursday 9th September 2010.

Can you help us - SEA SHELLS

We are trying to build up a collection of shells for future art work. Could children please bring in any shells (washed please) that they have or may acquire from their holidays.

Can you help us – too many children seem to forget essential items, such as PE kit or packed lunches. When these items are delivered late to the school office we often do not have the resources to take the items around the school. Please help us and ensure your child comes to school with all the equipment they need for the day.

Many thanks.
